Gainesville Couple Signs Lease for New Fish & Chips Eatery at the Cumming City Center

CUMMING, Ga. – Albert and Amanda Reeves signed a lease on Sept. 19th to open Washington’s Wharf in the space formerly occupied by Wright’s Fish and Chips at the Cumming City Center.

The couple said they are excited about the new opportunity and plan to bring back the flavors the community loves in British-style fish & chips, plus more. In addition to the traditional British-style fish & chips, Washington’s Wharf will also offer seasoned fish & chips, a fish sandwich, fried chicken tenders, and deli sandwiches for lunch.

The interior of the restaurant will also see a few changes. According to Albert Reeves, the family plans to add a bar area for a warm pub-like feel, and will be adding an assortment of cocktails to the menu.

The Reeves recently opened Washington Street Deli on the downtown square in Gainesville, and previously owned The Monkey Barrel restaurant, a former Gainesville square staple.

Albert and Amanda have been married for more than 20 years and have three children. Albert said he and his wife look forward to being a part of the Cumming City Center family.
